

Vacancy: Program Manager Foundation Chimbo in Boé (Guinea Bissau)

Location: Beli - Boé, Guinea Bissau

Start date: January 1, 2015

Contract duration: 3-4 years

Application deadline: November 1, 2014

Our organization:

Chimbo Foundation is committed to maintaining and where necessary, to restore the chimpanzee population and habitat in West Africa. Currently, the foundation focuses on the Boé (a remote area in southeastern Guinea Bissau). For more information, see also www.chimbo.org

Job description

The program manager represents Chimbo Foundation in Guinea Bissau and in the Boé region in particular. The program manager coordinates all activities of Chimbo in the area; he/she also coordinates the local staff, international volunteers, researchers and students.

What do we ask?

- M.Sc. in natural resource management or similar
- Experience in a non-Western society
- Management experience
- Result and solution-orientation
- Flexibility
- Pro-activeness
- Good communication skills
- Good command of two of the following three languages: English, French and Portuguese
- Driving license
- First aid training and the ability to work with engines and cars is an advantage

What do we offer?

- An interesting job where you make the difference
- A local salary
- Costs covered
- Free Housing
- Once a year a ticket to your home

How to apply?

Please send your CV and motivation letter in English or French before November 1, 2014 to info@chimbo.org

For questions, we are available on the number +31 488 482369 or mobile number +31 6 17280797 or you can mail to info@chimbo.org